Sarah, Bob -- just closing the loop. The documents got burned into CDs this morning and those CDs have been dropped with FedEx for delivery tomorrow to both the governor's office (John Corra since Jeremiah is out this week) and the two tribes.

WY thinks they got all of the documents by e-mail over the weekend, though they were not definitive on that score. The tribes got only the first e-mail (the data summary and some data).

By tomorrow, all of them will have all of the documents.

Thanks

Jim
